Design in motion

Harmoniously blending cutting-edge design with functional elegance, the ELEEZ collection by Zaha Hadid Design is informed by the spiraling, embracing lines of a helix. Carved into the handle's cylindrical surface, this gentle curvilinear movement conveys a sense of geometric dynamism while maintaining solidity and ease of use.

Each piece reflects Zaha Hadid Design's methodological approach, coherently responding to every brief. ELEEZ combines sculptural forms with ergonomic precision, transforming door hardware into visually compelling, functional elements for any interior.

Design in beweging

De ELEEZ-collectie van Zaha Hadid Design verenigt baanbrekend design met functionele elegantie. Geïnspireerd door de spiraalvormige, vloeiende lijnen van een helix, ontvouwt zich een dynamische beweging in het cilindrische oppervlak van de greep. Deze subtiele, gebogen vormgeving wekt een gevoel van geometrische dynamiek op, terwijl het ontwerp tegelijkertijd soliditeit en gebruiksgemak biedt.

Elk element weerspiegelt de methodische ontwerpbenadering van Zaha Hadid Design en vormt een doordachte reactie op elke ontwerp-opdracht. ELEEZ combineert sculpturale vormen met ergonomische precisie en transformeert deurbeslag tot een visueel krachtig, functioneel element binnen elk interieur.

About Zaha Hadid Design

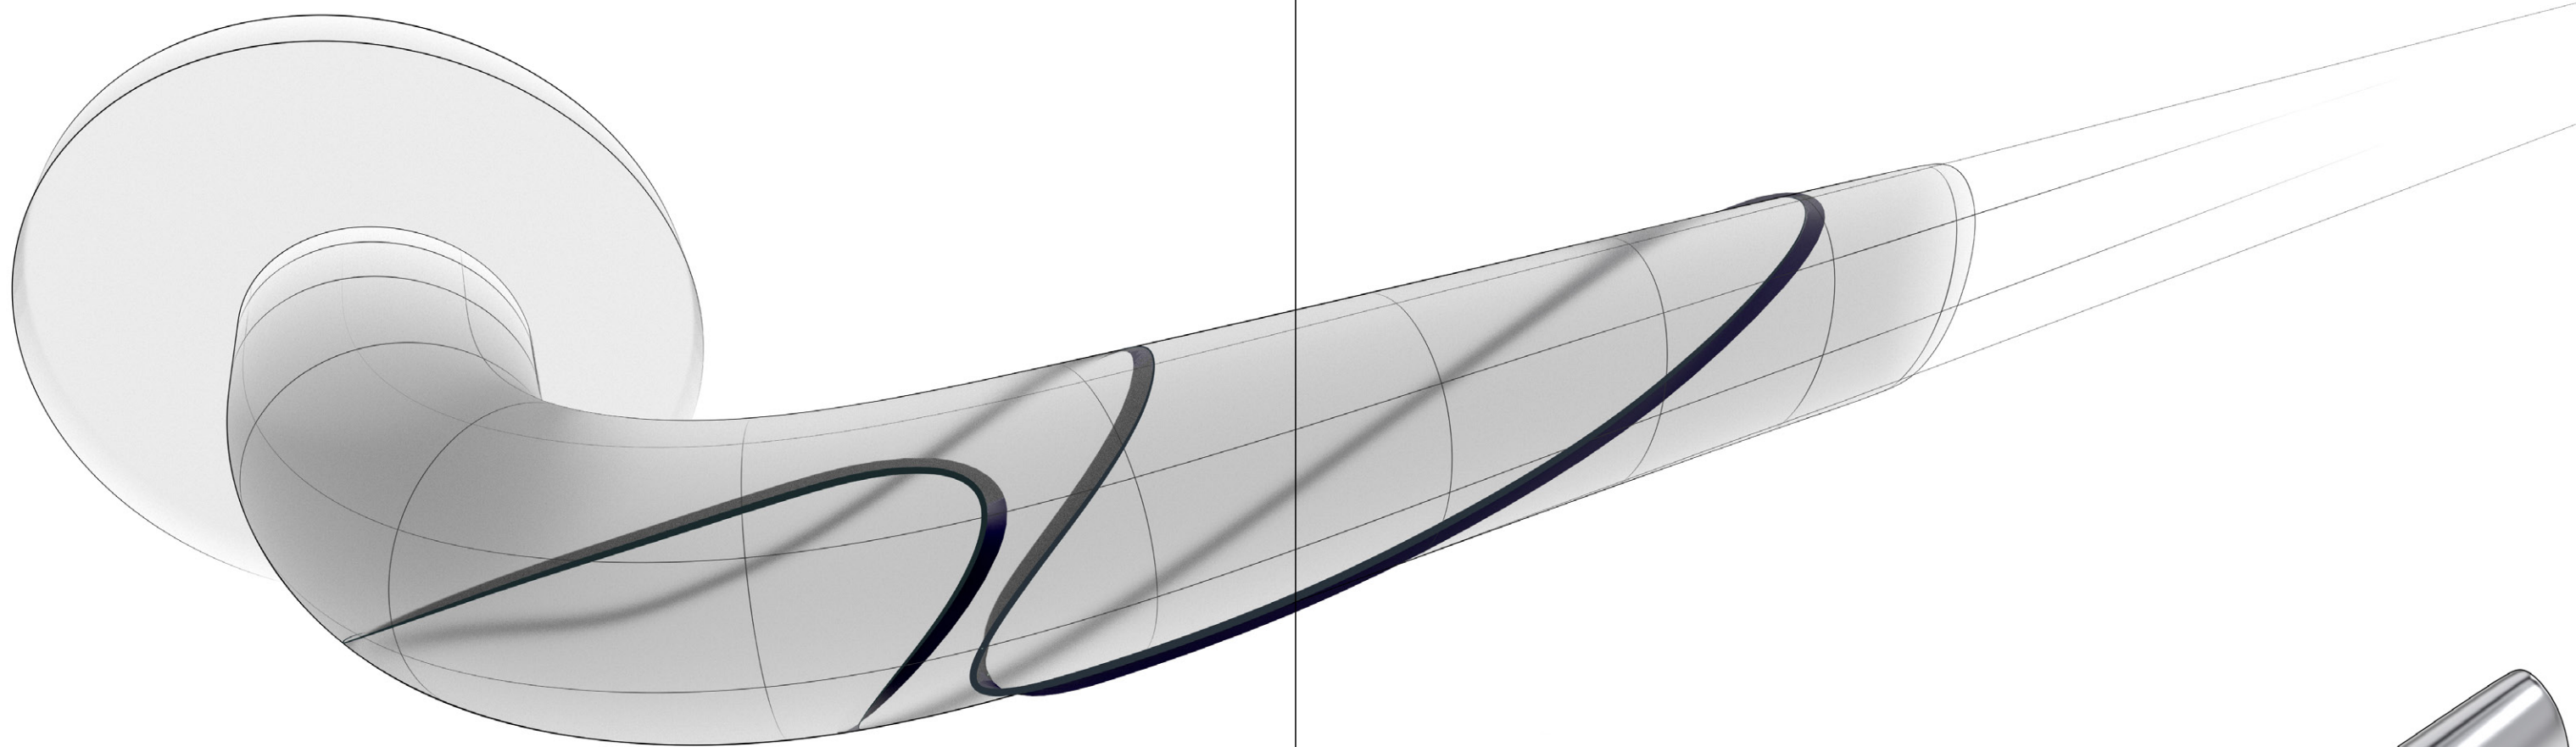

London, United Kingdom

Established in 2006 by Zaha Hadid († 31.03.2016), Zaha Hadid Design (ZHD) ensures consistency with the Founder's ethos by continuing to coherently translate and apply Hadid's methodological approach to any new design.

Experimenting, testing and implementing the latest technological and material advancements, ZHD's portfolio is built on over 40 years of research expressed at different scales and typologies encompassing lighting, furniture, fashion accessories, jewellery, interiors, exhibitions, and set-design.

A sculptural gallery space by Zaha Hadid Architects

The Roca London Gallery, designed by Zaha Hadid Architects, exemplifies fluid architecture. Inspired by the movement of water, its sculptural concrete walls, curved ceilings, and organic passages create a seamless, dynamic interior. The ELEEZ collection by Zaha Hadid Design for FORMANI embodies this vision, with its helix-inspired geometry and stainless steel finish echoing the gallery's architectural language. An interplay of light, shadow, and form—where strength meets refinement in timeless design.

De Roca London Gallery, ontworpen door Zaha Hadid Architects, is een meesterwerk van vloeiende architectuur. Geïnspireerd door de beweging van water vormen de sculpturale betonnen wanden, gebogen plafonds en organische doorgangen een naadloos en dynamisch interieur. De ELEEZ-collectie van Zaha Hadid Design voor FORMANI weerspiegelt deze visie, met een helix-geïnspireerde geometrie en een roestvrijstalen afwerking die aansluit bij de architectonische taal van de galerie. Een spel van licht, schaduw en vorm waar kracht en verfijning samenkomen in een tijdloos ontwerp.
